Those Were The Days ...

THOSE WERE THE DAYS
WHEN FRIENDS WERE TRUSTED,
BUT NOW THINGS HAVE CHANGED;
MEMORIES HAVE RUSTED.

AS THE HOURS PASS BY,
A BREEZE SCATTERS DUST.
THE HOURS BECOME DAYS,
THE BREEZE TURNS TO GUSTS.

THE PAIN OF FOND MEMORIES
WILL HINDER US ALL.
ALTHOUGH THEY'LL BE CHERISHED
MANY TEARS WILL STILL FALL.

FRIENDSHIPS CAN LAST
FOREVER AND LONGER.
TIME WEAKENS SOME,
BUT MAKES OTHERS STRONGER.

THE DUST COVERS MEMORIES
AND ALL THOUGHT OF RETURN TO THE DAYS THAT WE LOVED;
NOW THOUGHTS OF THEM BURN.

OUR FRIENDS ARE ALL SPECIAL
IN INDIVIDUAL WAYS.
OUR THOUGHTS WILL SOON BE
"THOSE WERE THE DAYS."

BY RHONNA WILBURN

May 14, 1978 Is 'Big Day' For Seniors

"What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us." This was the motto for the Seniors of 1978.

In September, the girls won the powder-puff game to succeed in becoming the only class to win it as both juniors and seniors. December brought the Christmas tree tradition in which the class participated. Although 46 left mid-term, the class didn't lose their spirit. At the sectional pep session, they showed their unity by building the winning pyramid for the second consecutive year.

The classmates will head their separate ways, but the memories and friendships that they've made will stay with them forever.

Those Were The Days...

Long Awaited Senior Year Coming Soon

127 juniors began to get jumpy as they prepared for their final senior year at NHS.

The most exciting part of the junior year was their 1978 prom.

Juniors spent an estimated $1100 from the $1200 they helped the school earn by selling magazine subscriptions. The juniors ranked 1st in selling the subscriptions.

The band Abacus played the theme song for the prom, "The Way I Feel Tonight," April 29th at the Lee's Inn.

Bonnie Combs stated, "The class of '79' brings me surprises every year."

Sophomores Treasure Class Rings 4-Ever

The class of 1980: Two of the main events of their sophomore year was getting their class rings and drivers licenses after their teachers "enjoyed" a summer of teaching them.

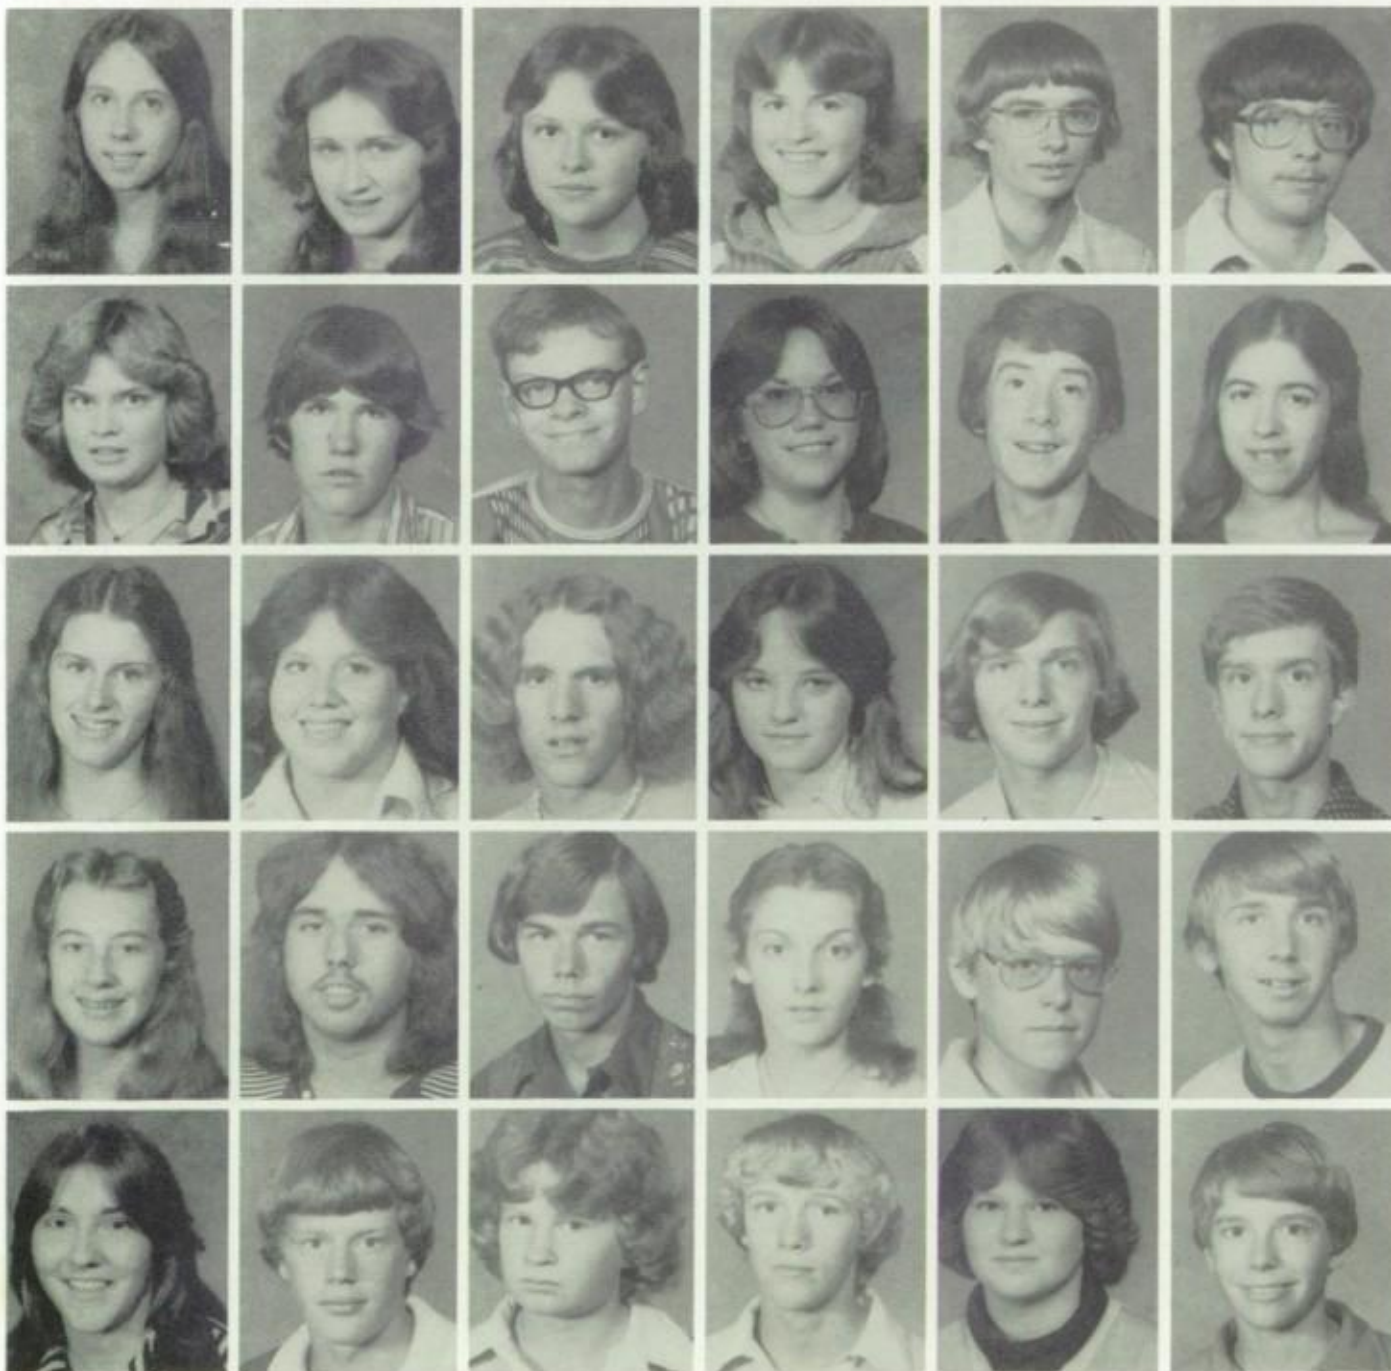

It was a thrill for the sophomores to see the familiar faces of their athletic buddies on the floor participating in the B-team and some in the varsity sports.

They had taken a big step in their lives as a student at NHS and most made the best of it.

Sophomore Terry Legear stated, "I'm really honored to be in the sophomore class and to be representing the class as a cheerleader."

Sue McGhee Wins Stereo In Drawing

The highlight of the sophomore's year was the arrival of their class rings in October.

Here's our lucky winner of the stereo, Susan McGhee, standing and dreaming of the disco albums she'll play. Mr. Nordmann, however, visualizes a nice Beethoven concert, since the hectic magazine sales are over.

The first two layers of the sophomore pyramid struggle under the weight of fellow classmen to show their spirit at the sectional pep session held in early March.

Class Of '81: You've Got 3 Years Left!

Winning the Wayne County and Randolph Southern 4-Way Basketball Tourneys was a highlight of the freshman class. Their trophies added to the school collection and were proudly on display in the office.

The class of 1981 ordered class rings in May as many of the 147 freshmen excitedly awaited their arrival. The time should pass quickly with driver education filling the summer days.

Class of '82: About 1,540 School Hours Left

One of the largest classes ever to stampede through the halls of NHS was the eighth graders.

The class of '82 consisted of 182 students as they completed their last year of junior high.

Required subjects for the class were English, math, social studies, and science.

Elective subjects were home economics or industrial arts; band or the 12 week course of art, music, and physical education.

First Year At NHS Is Rewarding

Courses they were required to take on a full-year basis were English, math, and social studies. In addition, boys took a full year of industrial arts and girls studied home economics. Students had the option to take a full year of band or 12 weeks of music, physical education, and art. All students took 9 weeks of science, Indiana history, French, and crafts.

Those Were The Days...

'77-78 Brings New Principal

Along With Other Changes

As everyone knows one of the biggest changes this year was . . . our principal, Mr. A. Gary Nordmann, of course. Among the other changes that were made was the magazine sales, a new honor roll system, and a revised version of the activity period.

Mr. Nordmann also commented, "I feel it has been a good year" and he is looking forward to helping bring more changes to our school system in the years to come.

Mr. A. Gary Nordmann—Principal; Manchester College, Indiana and Ball State Universities; B.S. and M.A.
HOBBIES: traveling, sports and model railroading

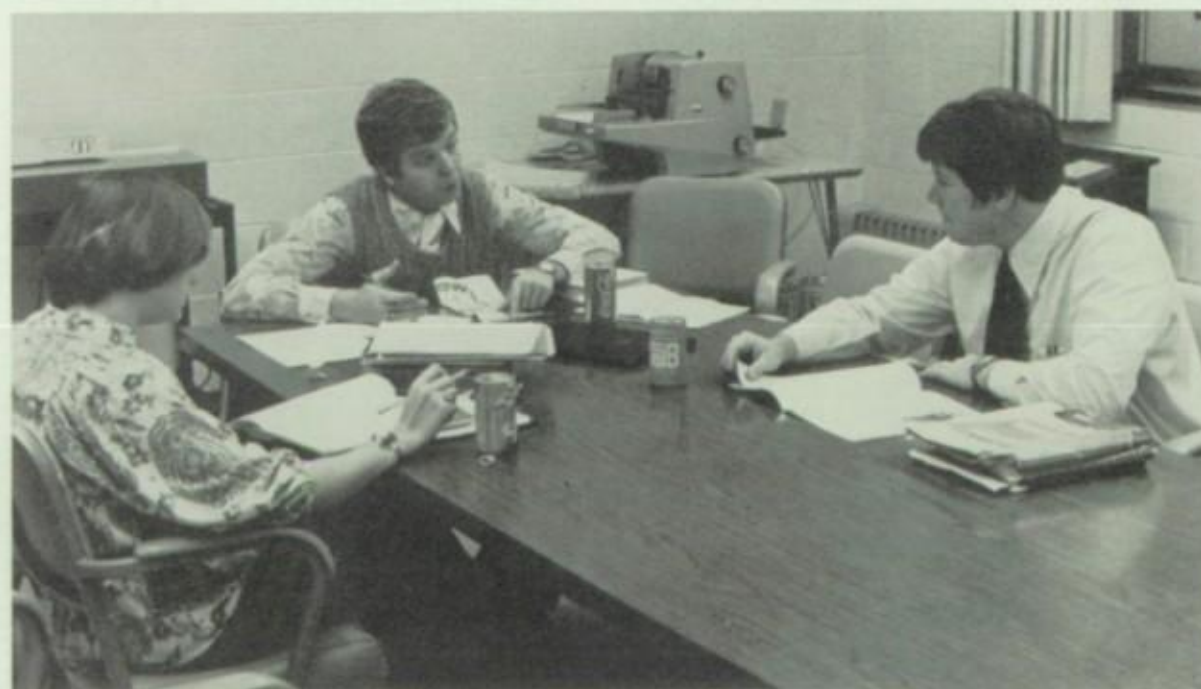

Mr. Woodson Coats—Dean of Students; Purdue, Indiana, and Ball State Universities—I.U. East; B.S. and M.S.
HOBBIES: farming, gardening, and Bridge

Mr. Gordon Ricketts—Director of Guidance; Hanover College, and Ball State University; B.S. and M.A.
HOBBIES: coaching sports and jogging
INTERESTS: attending automobile races

Mrs. Nancy Tash—Guidance Counselor; Indiana and Ball State Universities; B.S. and M.A.E.
HOBBIES: Bridge, water sports, and reading
INTERESTS: traveling

During their first hour prep period in the teachers' lounge, "otherwise known as an oasis," Miss Mitchell tries to prepare her lessons, while Mr. Emery and Mr. Stewart get into a "heated argument." What do you want to bet it's about sports?

School Board, front row, from left, Denver Frame, Ernie Heighway. Second row, Sam Hubbell, Frank Monroe, Charles Flake, Jarrell Brooks.

Mrs. Norma Eadler—Secretary; Sinclair Community College and I.U. East
HOBBIES: macrame, swimming, boating, and camping INTERESTS: children and family

Mrs. Lois Gray—Secretary; Taylor University
HOBBIES: sewing and crocheting
INTERESTS: reading, cooking, canning, and grandchildren

Mrs. Marcia Jeffers—School Nurse

During the first pep session there was a contest in which three of our more humorous teachers participated. Here Mr. Emery displays his talent of eating bananas blindfolded, while Mr. Stewart and Mr. Lower watch intently.

Overpopulated Classes Bestow Problems

English classes were overcrowded this year, some with 35 to 37 students. "Ideally, an English class should not be more than 25 students," commented Mrs. Allman. But due to our number of rooms and English teachers available, this couldn't be helped.

On February 21, 1978, Tammy Hinshaw was selected to represent NHS at a district spelling bee, Lori Mullins was the runner-up. Also, the English Department hosted a Book Fair last spring.

English can be a subject of great opportunity. In this particular court scene, Scott McDaniel doesn't seem to agree with the "judge" (Mark Ward), but decides that it is better to give in than to be smacked in the kisser with a gavel.

After seven months of hard work, senior section editor, Cathy Uhl is still working diligently on her section.

Mrs. Mary Allman—Malone and William Penn Colleges, Drake and Ball State Universities; Th.B. and B.A.
HOBBIES: swimming, reading, hiking, traveling, golf, and playing the piano
INTERESTS: interior decorating and keeping a journal

Mrs. Ruth Williamson—Asbury College; A.B.
INTERESTS: The Trinity Shoppe and church related activities

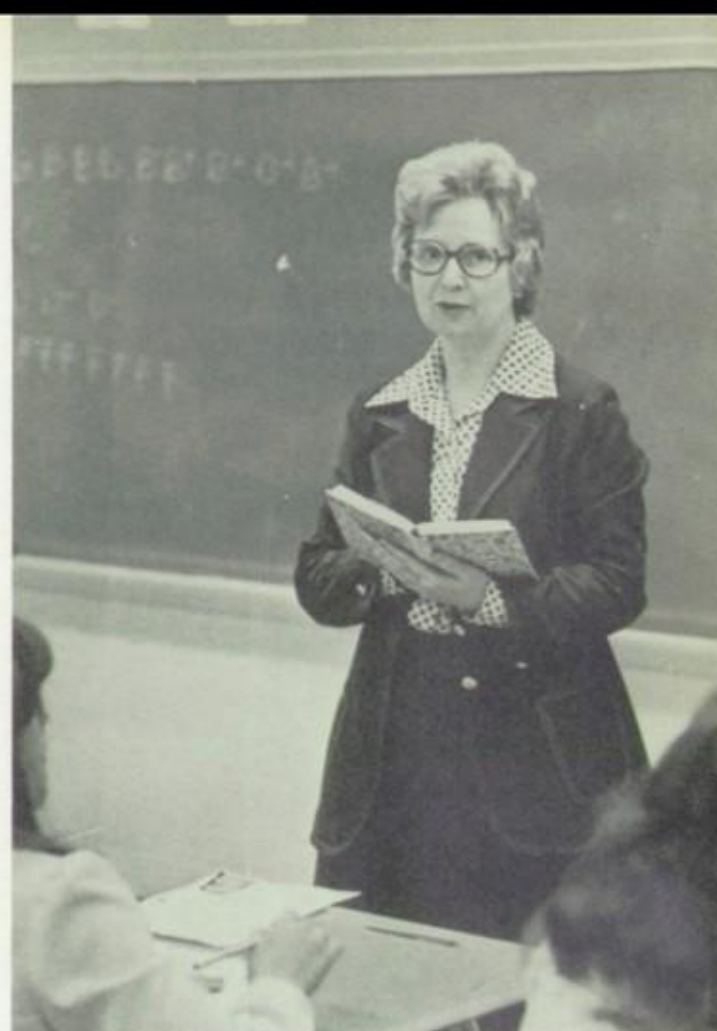

Eric Sittloh shows off his talent in sports during a speech he had to give English class.

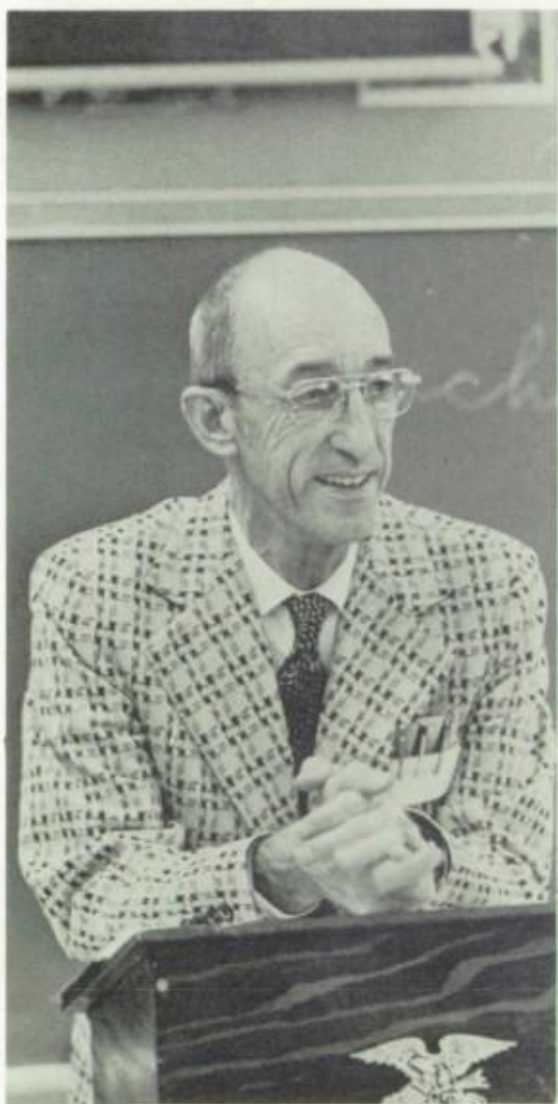

Mr. David Lower—Earlham College and Ball State University; B.A. and M.A.E.
HOBBIES: golf, tennis, and auto mechanics INTERESTS: football and baseball

Ross Gwin seems to find watching crazy photographers roam the halls, more enjoyable than his "daily lesson".

Mrs. Helen Morgan—Asbury College and Ball State University; A.B. and M.A.
HOBBIES: keeping scrapbooks and photograph albums, collecting recipes, and reading

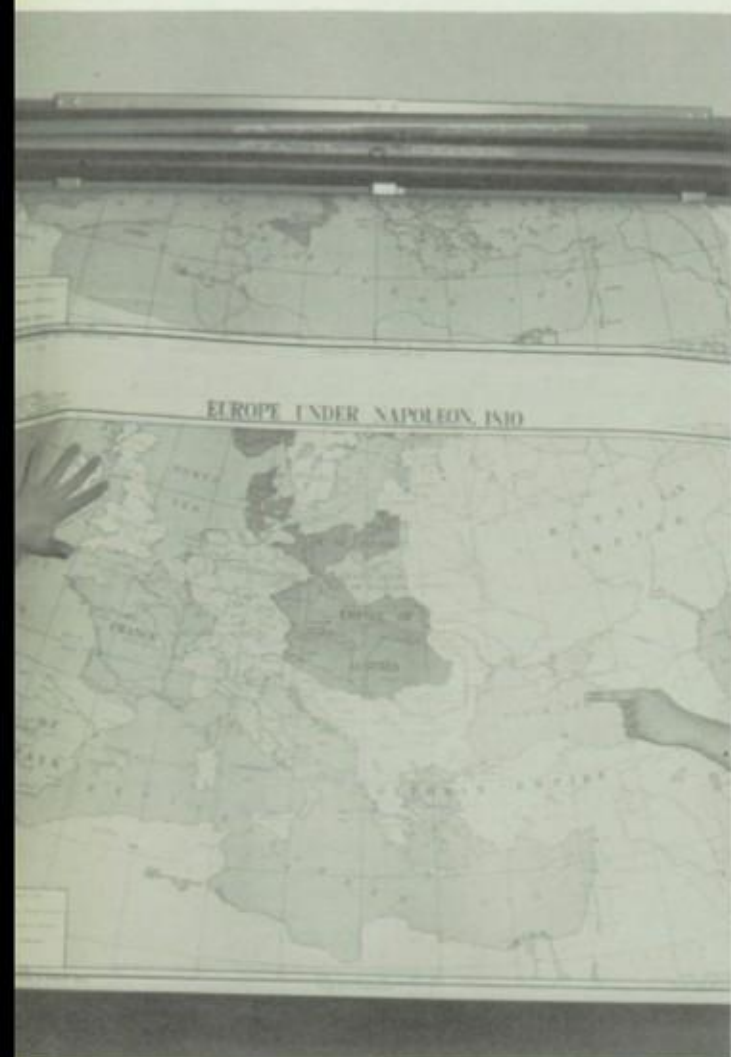

Mr. R. Howard Rust—Indiana Central and Ball State Universities; A.B., M.A. and Superintendent's License
HOBBIES: roses and refinishing old furniture INTEREST: reading and growing different kinds of house plants

In a typical English class court scene, Bruce "Kitty" Harris is wondering when the court case will come to an end. In the meantime, Jeff Hersey tries to bribe the defense, who is Jeff Hartman, with his cute little baby face.

History Department Greets

Mr. Sherrow's maps have a personality all their own, a lot like the projects students were assigned in class this year.

Mrs. Linda Backmeyer—Miami and Indiana Universities, Earlham College and Western College for Women; A.B. and M.S.
HOBBIES: swimming, tennis, and dancing INTERESTS: primarily her family

The history department this year consisted of nine different courses. Six of these courses were offered to high school students.

Senior Chris Lahmann was the winner, from NHS, of the D.A.R. (Daughters of the Amer-

Mrs. Evelyn Bortner—Manchester College and Miami University; B.S. and M.S.
HOBBIES: house plants and crewel embroidery

Mr. Mike Rawlings—Ball State University; B.S.
HOBBIES: all sports ican Revolution) "Good Citizen for 1978" award. "I was surprised I won, the test was hard," commented Chris.

Also last spring Lyle Messenger, from Ball State, helped out in the history department.

Mr. Gary Cole—Ball State University; B.S. and M.A.E.
HOBBIES: collecting and refinishing antique furniture, tennis, gardening, and reading INTERESTS: going to auctions

Is Tammy Sparks trying to think of a brilliant answer on her history assignment or how to skip her next class?

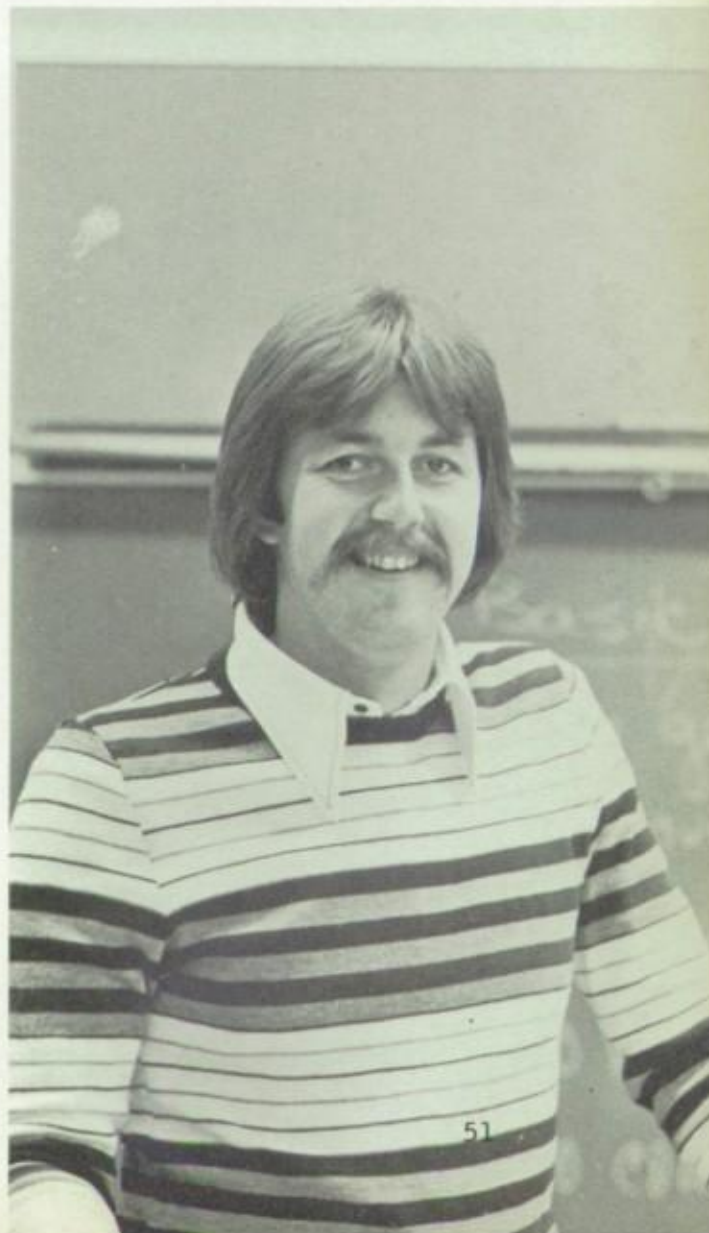

Mr. Cole's world history class brings different dreams about the past, to its members. To Teresa Johnson—it's being "Queen Victoria"; to Dean Frame "I wish I was Henry VIII with all those wives"; to Kelly Brooks—a damsel from the Renaissance.

Mrs. Peggy Hummel—Ball State University; B.S. and M.A.
HOBBIES: patchwork, reading, singing, embroidery, bicycling, and house plants INTERESTS: motorcycling with husband, listening to Red's games, observing grandchildren grow, and traveling—particularly west

Mr. Michael Sherrow—Ball State University; B.S. and M.A.
HOBBIES: participating in basketball and tennis

Math: 'Readies' Students

This year the math department welcomed a new member, Mr. Jim Fletcher, to their staff. Mr. Fletcher is also head basketball coach for the Knights.

Mr. Weaver, chairman of the mathematic department, stated, "Every course is designed to help ready our students for the future. Since most students are undecided about what career they plan to pursue, they should be prepared no matter what direction they choose to take. We feel our curriculum meets this goal."

For Future,' Says Weaver

Mr. Larry Moore—Ball State University; B.S. and M.A.
INTERESTS: Red's baseball and handball at YMCA

Mr. Rob Weaver—Ball State and Indiana Universities; B.S. and M.S.
HOBBIES: broadcasting, sportscasting, and golf

Mrs. Susan Marie Harrison—Taylor and Ball State Universities; B.S.
HOBBIES: camping, backpacking, and canoeing INTERESTS: theatre and the drama students at NHS

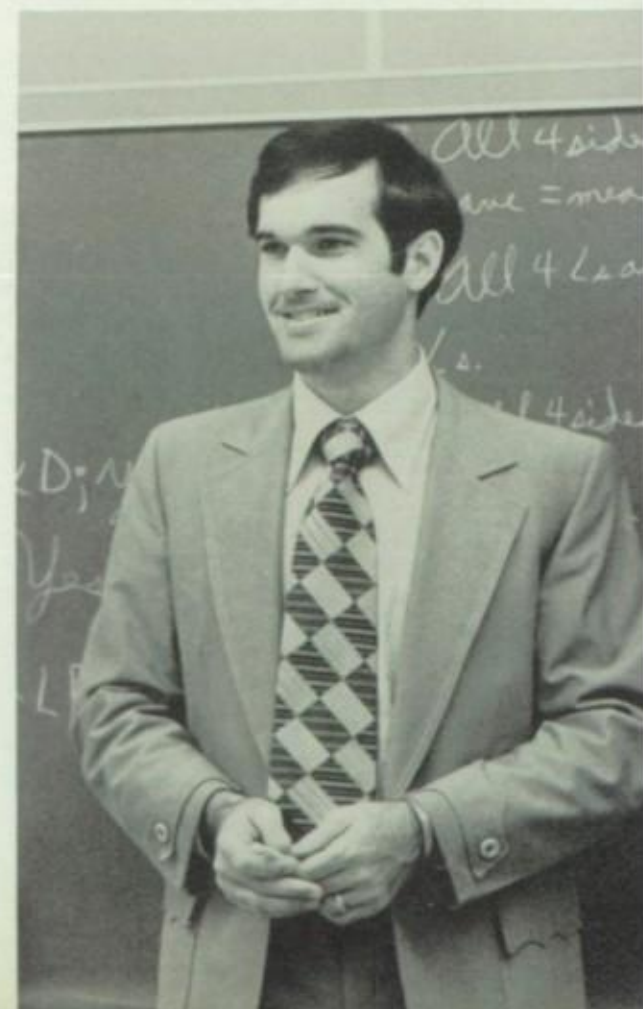

Eighth grader Sandy Nichols feels very confident that her answer for Mrs. Harrison's tricky question is correct.

Mr. James Bussell—Ball State and Indiana Central Universities; B.S. and M.A.
HOBBIES: tennis, racketball and other activities that involve physical exercise
INTERESTS: "I enjoy watching and helping my kids grow and develop"

Mr. Jim Fletcher—Indiana State University and Washington State; B.S. and M.S.
HOBBIES: sports, reading, and traveling INTERESTS: public speaking

Science Department Proves Book Wrong

Engaging in some research this year the science department proved the textbook to be wrong. "We've found a better method of raising mice and rats," commented Mr. Warvel, science teacher. The classes discovered a way to increase the mortality rate for the offspring. There were six different courses offered in the science department this year.

Mr. Warvel's fifth hour Biology I class did more than just dissect worms and crayfish . . . they had to split up giggling girls like freshmen Kelly Hurd and Susan Klosterman, who debate on whether or not to let their laughter burst out.

Mr. John Andrews—Vincennes and Purdue Universities; B.S.
HOBBIES: farming, machinery, and music INTERESTS: security officer for Alcoa

Mr. Dick Warvel—Purdue and Ball State Universities; M.S. and B.S.
HOBBIES: fishing, hunting, and loafing out-of-doors INTERESTS: coaching cross-country and track

Mr. Roy Short—Purdue, Ball State, and Bradley Universities, Earlham College, South Dakota State and Oak Ridge Institution of Nuclear Studies; B.A. and M.A.
Hobbies: farming and reading INTERESTS: teaching

Mr. Dalton Dalzell

Art Show Is Big Success

The Spring Art Show was once again a big success for the art department.

"There is so much new talent in the art department. This has been a pretty encouraging year," stated Mrs. Baker, sponsor.

Seventh grader David Ferguson exhibits his imagination and skills in art. I bet he just can't wait to color it.

Mrs. Cindy Baker—Ball State University; B.S. and M.S.
HOBBIES: flying, drawing, and sewing
INTERESTS: bike riding

Mrs. Judy Thornburg—Ball State University; B.S. and M.S.
HOBBIES: painting, drawing and reading
INTERESTS: antiques

Music Department Presents

The department started a tradition this year by presenting the first NHS musical, "Bye, Bye Birdie."

Also we welcomed a new band director, Mr. Mark Pulley.

Miss Rosemary Mitchell—Ball State University; B.S.
HOBBIES: plants INTERESTS: traveling, music, and Christian living

Musical 'Bye, Bye Birdie'

Dave Keller, Trent Thorman, Doug Johnson, and Darren Lacey all "jam down" to the beat of their favorite song, "Riff Raff."

Mr. Mark Pulley—Ball State University; B.S.
HOBBIES: skiing, bicycling, handball
INTERESTS: music

Phys. Ed. Helps Student To

Become 'Physically' Aware

Mr. Wright, chairman of the physical education department, commented that one "objective is to help the student become physically aware of their bodies; how to work their bodies into condition, and to keep the body in shape."

The classes are also going through a transition to prepare for next years coeducation.

"Only 99 hours, 9 minutes, and 9½ seconds to go and I'll hold the world record," imagines Junior Robbie Brown as he tries to show off his strength by seeing how long he can sustain a chin-up in Mr. Wright's fifth hour physical education class.

Mr. Robert Wright

Miss Ruth Coddington—Ball State and Miami Universities; B.S.

HOBBIES: crafts, plants, and reading
INTERESTS: remodeling an old school house, refinishing furniture, etc. for house, gardening, cats, horses and playing volleyball

Mr. Mike Stewart—Indiana State University; B.S.
HOBBIES: sports INTERESTS: fishing

Mrs. Sarah Ricketts—Indiana and Ball State Universities, Los Angeles State College; B.S. and M.A.
INTERESTS: sports, attending USAC races, reading, camping, playing and officiating volleyball

Home Economic Class Attends Home Show

Mrs. Marla Franklin—Purdue, Auburn, and Ball State Universities, Columbus College; B.S.
HOBBIES: sewing, snow and water skiing, bowling, reading, and numerous handicrafts

Mrs. Olive Ranck—Earlham College and Ball State University; A.B. and M.A.
HOBBIES: needlework, sewing, ceramics, and biking INTERESTS: music and travel

"HOT Club and housing class attended Indianapolis Home Show to tour the centerpiece home and see displays of home furnishings," replied Mrs. Ranck, department head, when asked about the activities of the year.

The big change in the home ec. department was the addition of marriage and family classes.

"I wonder if these thin sheets of paper can really make something to wear," wonders Dawn Kutche, as she carefully studies her pattern. Meanwhile, Sheila George tries to figure out which lines of her pattern she should trim down.

Melisa Ramey dabs her fingers in some glue so that she can paste the rest of her canister's "clothes" on.

Miss Pamela Pollard—Ball State University; B.S.
HOBBIES: crafts, fishing, sewing, and cooking INTERESTS: sports

'Improvement' in I.A. Dept;

Mr. Robert Tutterrow—Ball State University; B.S. and M.S.
HOBBIES: farming

Mr. Darrell D. Frame—Ball State University; B.S. and M.A.
HOBBIES: teaching INTERESTS: farming

As junior Jeff Wise hunches over his drafting project, he tries to figure out whether to put the extra bathroom next to the den or near the swimming pool. "My bachelor pad will be the most desirable one in Fountain City," he dreams.

20% Students Take Agriculture

"There has been an overall improvement" in the industrial arts department, stated Mr. Frame. In addition, a growing interest in agriculture was indicated by an increase in the size of the department. "About 20% of the students are presently taking vocational agriculture," commented Mr. Sims.

Mr. Gordon Riddle—Ball State University; B.S.
HOBBIES: motorcycle riding, citizen band radios and finding antiques INTERESTS: working on my home

Mr. Stan Sims—Purdue University; B.A. and M.S.
HOBBIES: sports and traveling

Mr. J.M. Kuzma—Miami University; B.S.
HOBBIES: traveling, motocross, and photography INTERESTS: Tae Kwon Do, American Indian cultures and art, and music

Business Dept. Introduces

"I told you that you would get caught copying down those answers," laughingly comments Kim Langley when Mark Johnson gets interrogated by Mr. Hawkins during one of his infamous lectures in the sixth hour general business class.

Mrs. Regina Kaye Baker—Indiana University East and Ball State University; B.S.
HOBBIES: gardening, sewing, tennis, and growing plants

Class of '78 Girls Remain Undefeated at Powder Puff

Homecoming festivities began on September 30 on the football field with the kickoff of the Powder Puff game. The victorious senior girls were coached by Mr. Hawkins and the juniors were backed by Mr. Rawlings. At the bonfire after the game, everyone said they had a great time.

Junior Gayle Hartman makes a quick, sound, landing as she reaches to rip off opponent Karen Turner's flag.

Happiness is . . . a victory for the seniors, (24-0), two great coaches, celebrating Mr. Hawkins' birthday, screaming for unknown reasons, and a spirit bonfire for homecoming.

Knights Defeat Falcons at '78 Homecoming

"Homecoming was a big success", reported Kathy Hurd, Student Council reporter. Highlights included banner day, in which first place went to the band. Second prize was given to the senior girls, and third to Jeff Wise. The main attraction was crowning Melisa Cox queen, and Rod Harris king.

Spirit was shown all through the day as homecoming progressed. Here, the second-place banner is shown.

Musical 'Bye Bye Birdie' Rated Tops!

"Fantastic," commented Mrs. Sue Harrison when asked about the Drama Club's production of 'Bye Bye Birdie', and fantastic it was. All Winter Takes Is Magic

On January 14, Student Council presented their first semi-formal dance, "Winter Magic." The dance was held in the cafeteria, which was delightfully decorated with 396 snowflakes dangling from the ceiling, along with blue carnations and streamers on the tables.

Approximately 120 sharply dressed students were at the festive occasion to see Cindy Wright crowned as princess, along with Kent Lewis, as prince. The court included Mark Johnson, Karen Tucker, Craig House, Lori Benner, Mike Seal, Karen Turner, Chris Lahmann, and Kathy Hurd.

As Carol Hamilton and her date Kent Webb dance under the snowflakes, Carol wishes the night would never end.

The night proved to be magic as Kent Lewis and Cindy Wright were selected to reign as prince and princess.

"Joy" was the theme of the Variety Show presented on April 7 and 8 by the music department. The show was a challenge as Mark Pulley stepped in mid year as new band director. "The show went really well, and I'm proud of everyone," he commented. He also noted the fine job by master and mistress of ceremonies, Dave Ketron and Sharon Turner (photo pg. 20). The guests all voted for a king and queen candidate when they arrived. The crowning took place at 11 p.m. when Junior Class President Gayle Hartman announced that Scott Lacey and Tammy Legear would reign as royalty over the evening. April 29 will be a night that the seniors will remember, as it was their last "big" high school activity.

Spirit Up; Thermostat Down

Signs like these, made by the cheerleaders, helped to warm up the halls and the hearts of every Knight fan during the sectional spirit week. The fans helped prove they were backing the Knights with a record crowd showing up at the sectional to cheer the Knights.

Would you believe that Junior Becky Moore is working in the Spring edition of the DAYS OF THE KNIGHTS! It just goes to show you that you can put up with any hardships—like your fingers freezing to the keys—just to get your work done.

Spirit comes in all grades and sizes, Dawn Purcell and Rhonda Ozburn prove that seventh graders are just as proud of the Knights as the rest of the school, as they proudly sing "Go You Northeastern" before the game begins.

Thanks to the 110 day coal strike, our school spirit climbed to an all-time high in late winter. Thermostats, however, dropped to a spine-tingling cold of 55 degrees.

Halls were dark, lunches consisted of soups, and rooms were filled with high-spirited students in coats and mittens. Sectional week, despite the cold, warmed up our spirits . . . or at least our hearts.

And Suddenly, It's Hard To Find Those

On May 14, 1978, 105 seniors realized that "What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us," as they turned their tassels toward their future. Since there was a tie in grade point average, there were two salutatorians, Dave Heighway and Rick Creviston. Class valedictorian was Dave Ketron who spoke to the class about the closeness of the class of '78. Pictured here are the last hours spent together here at N.H.S. Where did the days go?

Those Were The Days...

The Knights girls' varsity basketball team broke even at 5-5 for the season, with several games cancelled because of snow. Coach Gordon Ricketts said the team performed as well as he had expected.

The team had seven letter-"women", with four returning next year. The team will miss Carol Hamilton and Betsy Nocton, who graduated; also Rhonna Wilburn, who moved.

Leading in both scoring and rebounding was Carol Hamilton. Rhonna Wilburn, with her 'phenominal passes', led in the assists department.

Knights Gridders Show Much Improvement

Although the Knights gridders finished the season with only one win out of ten games, Coach David Lower commented, "Though the record doesn't show it, we were a varsity improved team, defensively. Our offense never really generated many points, nor did it maintain ball control." He went on to say, "we averaged nine or more turnovers per game."

The team placed seventh in the conference. A few key players for the Knights were leading sophomore running back, Eric Sittloh; junior all conference lineman, Jeff Wise; and seniors

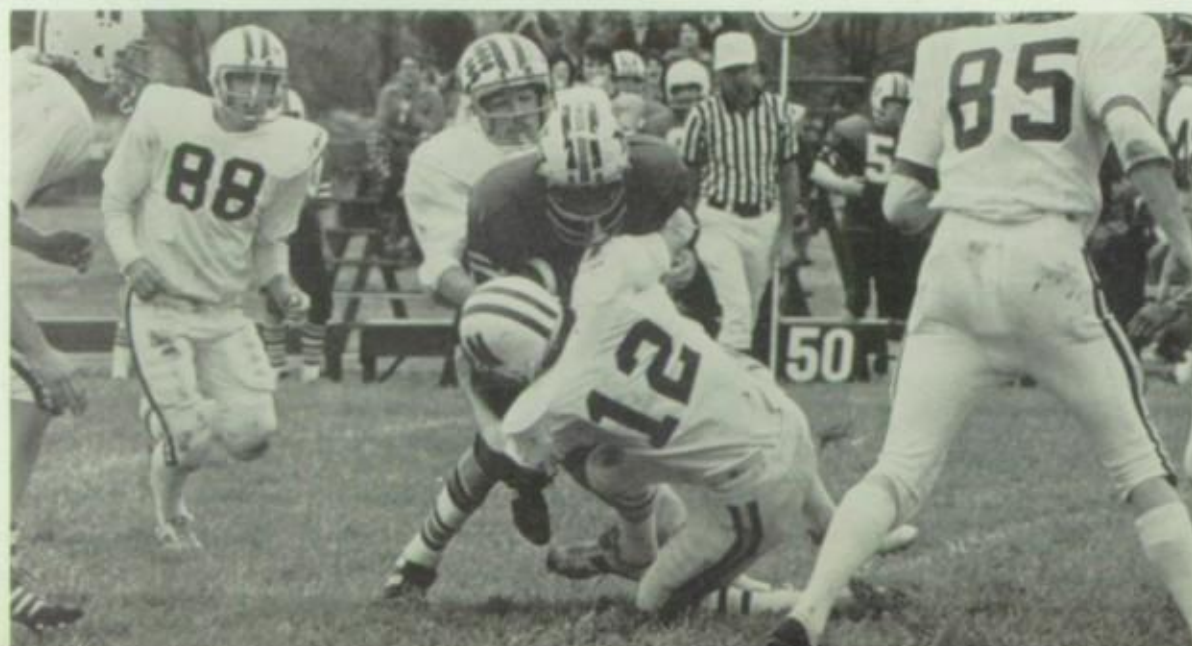

Kenny Oler, end and punter; and Keith Coddington at split end.

The team had a total of 27 lettermen, with 16 returning next season.

Eric Sittloh led the Knights in both rushing and scoring with a total of 791 yards and 28 points. Chris Lahmann scored three TD's for 18 points. The leading receiver, Keith Coddington, made 15 catches for 226 yards.

The leading defensive players were Dave Renyer with 79 tackles; Jeff Wise with 68; and Eric Sittloh with 67.

The strong Knights defense, as shown here by players Craig House, No. 88, and Kenny Oler, No. 85, converge on the Mississinawa Valley player, as Eric Sittloh, No. 44, and Steve Cummins, No. 12, "gang bang" the runner!

"The team was young and inexperienced," stated Mr. Mike Stewart, coach of the junior varsity gridders. "We made mistakes, but the team has a lot of potential."

The team consisted of 22 freshmen, all of which have a good future in football. The team slated a 1-5 record. Important players were Mike Kirby, Bobby Stigleman, and Mike Herron, stated Mr. Stewart.

Leading the team with four touchdowns was Mike Kirby, who also led in rushing department. Bobby Stigleman led in passing with 180 yards for 10 catches. Andy Fodale had 43 tackles, with Kevin Riley close behind with 42.

Looking Good For Returning NHS Thinlies

This year's varsity cross country team showed highlights of what could be a conference winning team next year.

Several outstanding athletes were Seniors D. Frame, and E. Webster; Junior T. Frame; Sophomores D. Thurston, and J. Frame. Most outstanding was Joe Ladd, who set a new course record and placed 18th in the sectional.

Coach Warvel was quoted as saying, "For a young team they did exceptionally well."

Next year's outlook is bright as the team loses only two seniors.

One of our more outstanding freshmen athletes, Joe Ladd, crosses that long bridge of good fortune to go on and finish high in the race against the Winchester Falcons.

Red Rawlings Racks Up A 8-1 Season

"Our eighth graders slated an 8-1 season and were strong again this year. I was also very pleased with the seventh grade. They lost their first two meets but came back to win six of their last seven," stated Mike Rawlings, jr. high cross country coach.

Performing well for the young Knights were R. Snipe, J. Ryan, and R. Gabbard from the eighth grade. Coach Rawlings commented that the eighth graders ability to run in a pack was their strength. In the seventh grade Todd Barker and Rusty Gabbard were the best runners.

Both teams performed well this year, with both teams winning their invitationals.

"We showed great improvement over last year, however, our performance was not as pleasing as I had anticipated," stated Mr. Bob Wright, tennis coach; compiling a 0-7 record.

Coach Wright stated that S. Lacey, D. Ketron, and T. Oler were the best singles players. C. Haisley and B. Mathews were the number one doubles team.

"S. Lacey and K. Jenkins were outstanding individual performers," stated Wright. Eight players return next year.

Deep concentration and tremendous knowledge of the game is shown here by Kenny Jenkins, against the Winchester Falcons.

Dave Ketron, senior, has the slick and graceful moves of a real tennis jock. This is his twisted-body over-the-head-slam.

Even if it means imitating Gene Simmons, or catching flies, Scott Lacey, senior, shows his physical strength in the air.

Sophomore Randall Lacey seems a little nervous as he bites his lower lip, but manages to make a good forearm swing.

Girls' B-team Prove What Experience Can Do

This year's girls' B-team basketball team did much better than last season and proved what one more year of experience can do.

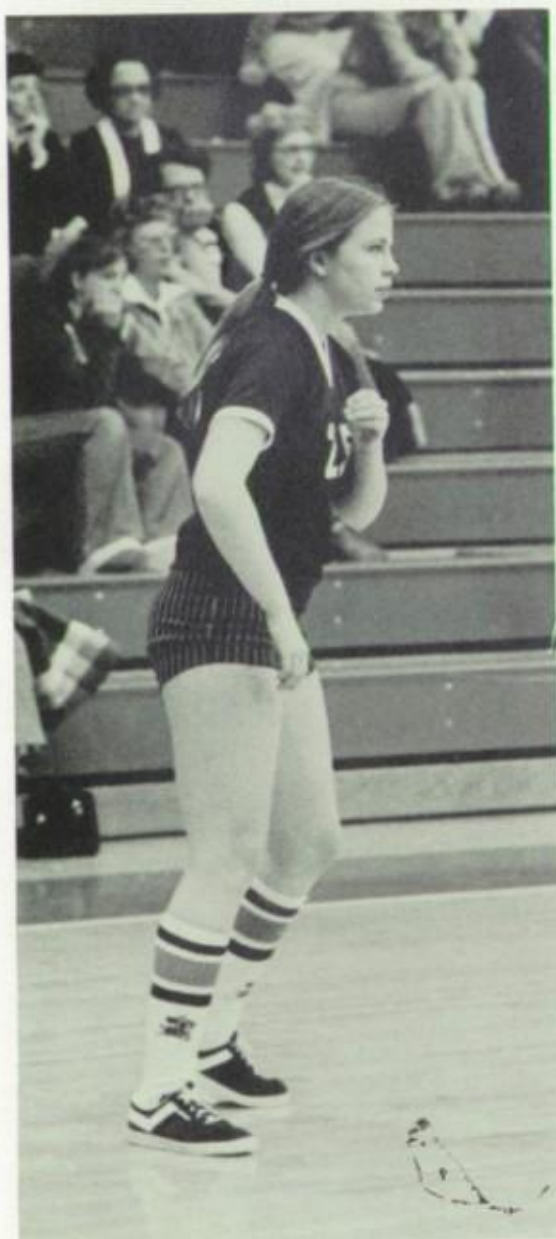

Coach Gordan Ricketts was "well satisfied" with their 5-5 record. He was assisted by Merilou Fulks, who took the B-team over by mid-season.

Individual performers in scoring were Sandy Hamm, Susan Browne, Kim Langley, and Linda Creviston. Leading in rebounds were Sandy Hamm and Mary Nocton. Linda Creviston led the team in assists, which was weak and will be worked on next year.

With the team performing well, next year's outlook is good.

Northeastern's varsity volleyball team slated a 7-7 record. Coach Barb Bader commented, "We had some attitude problems this year. This is usually true when working with young girls."

The varsity squad will lose four seniors; Lori Benner, Kim Gwin, Joyce Hamm, and Betsy Nocton. Coach Bader stated that "the girls performed well as a team."

"Our offense keyed on top performers Kim Gwin and Teresa Street." She added, "Kim Ketron and Verlinda Toschlog were consistent with serves." Next year's outlook is bright.

Junior Kim Ketron, showing tremendous fundamental skill, receives a serve with a bump and sets it up for a "kill play."

Leah Freeland, sophomore, receives the ball from the side with a forearm bump pass. The crowd is shown anxiously awaiting for the results of the play and for Senior "Spark plug" Nicholson to spike the ball.

"I am King of the Court!", blurts Susan Browne, freshman, as she sets the ball backward to Kim (Spark Plug) Nicholson, with Brenda Baker, (12), looks on the play and is ready to assist if needed. The Knights went on to win over the Rebels.

The junior varsity volleyball squad marked a 4-5 season. Coach Barb Bader also had the task of coaching these girls. She commented, "This team was very young this year. Most of them should return next year."

The top performer for the team was Verlinda Toschlog. Coach Bader stated, "Verlinda began the year as a starter. By mid-season she had earned a starting position on the varsity squad. "Leah Freeland was a very hard worker, her performance was usually very consistent," stated Bader. She finished by saying, "Rhonda Herron was strongest on serving."

Varsity Boys Show Improvement Toward

"During the last half of the year the team kept improving and played better than most people expected," commented Jim Fletcher, varsity basketball coach. The team finished the season at 5-16. Seven of the ten lettermen will return.

Leaders in scoring were Mike Seal with 10.8 per game, Mark Johnson, Steve Esarey, and Tony Valant followed with 10.6, 10.3, and 9.3 respectively. Eric Sittloh led in rebounds with 127, Valant with 120, and Esarey with 114.

Mark Johnson led in assists with 98, just missing the season record.

In closing Coach Fletcher commented that this was "my most enjoyable year as a varsity coach."

Season Close

Senior guard Mike Seal grabs the ball and drives the base line for another easy two points for the Knights.

Mark Johnson, senior guard, checks out the situation as the coaching staff watches and the crowd admires his legs.

Senior forward Steve (Erchinberger) Esarey thinks to himself, "I want to fly like an eagle," as he is knocked out of action during the tourney at Union.

Mike Seal, senior guard, hurries down the floor for a fast break attempt as the rest of the team plays "follow the leader." Seal, a super sub that game, was the high scorer for the Knights. Later in the season he gained a starting position.

Individual Performers Lack A Team Unity

"Individually there were some very fine performers on the team. However, I, as coach was unable to mold these individual players into a cohesive unit. When these individuals become a 'team', I'm sure they'll be a very productive group on the court," explained B-team coach Bob Wright on team performance.

Doug Hamilton led the scoring with 164 points, 8.6 points per game. Doug also led in rebounding with a total of 135 boards, 7.1 per game. Following Doug in both scoring and rebounding was Kevin Lewis and Ross Gwin, respectively.

Kevin Lewis led in assists with 36, followed by Kenny Jenkins and Bob Stoker with 31 and 24, respectively.

Good Team Ball Leads The Freshmen To 13-2 Record

"This was a great bunch of boys to work with. We had several boys with considerable talent and still managed to play good team ball," stated Mike Rawlings, freshman basketball coach.

The roundballers had many close games, including the only two games they lost, by one point each. The team had 13 wins, including the Wayne County and Randolph Southern Tourneys.

Leading the scoring department was Greg Finley, who later moved up to B-team, with a 14.8 point average per game. Coach Rawlings said Greg was "the best all around ball player I've ever coached."

Leading rebounders were Bobby Stigleman, Greg Moore, and Mike Herron, respectively.

Rick Ross and Tim Myers, freshmen forwards, look toward the bucket to pull down the rebound.

Roundballers Unhampered By Weather

"Considering the problems of no practice and postponed games due to the weather, I was most pleased with the team's progress," stated Mr. Rob Weaver about his 8th grade team this year.

The team finished with a 7-5 record and won four of their last five games. David Bartram led the team in scoring, followed by Curt Pierce. Pierce also led the team in rebounding.

Coach Weaver went on to say that "Karl Laswell, Tom Lyons, and Mike Loper were among the most improved players during the season."

Could this be a loud fan or the scoreboard? You can bet Coach Stewart knows, along with the referees and Tim Frame, Scott Berry, and Rusty Gabbard.

The seventh grade team shows tremendous movement away from the ball as Alan Wetzel, number 40, Max Adams, number 54, and Mark Hartman, number 20, get into position for the play.

Nicholson And Barker Lead Roundballers

"They did not play up to their potential. They will have to play smarter ball in the coming years," stated Mr. Stewart, 7th grade basketball coach, when asked about the team.

The team concluded the season with a 5-4 record, with Kevin Nicholson and Todd Barker being the team's high scorers of the season.

Pulling down the most rebounds for the Knights were Kevin Nicholson, Kyle Watt, and Max Adams.

The seventh grade B-team had a 2-1 record and was led by Dennis Frame, Chris Bartram, Mike Meyer, and Rusty Gabbard.

Seventh grade cheerleaders, top, Gretchen Conner, bottom, Kara Hubbell, Anne Hawkins, Mindy Fulks.

Cancellations 'Hamper' Knight Grapplers

"Our dual meet record was hampered by cancellations. We jumped three places in the conference and were constantly improving," stated wrestling coach Larry Emery.

The team slated a 3-5 record and placed fourth in the TEC. There were ten lettermen; nine will return next year.

Outstanding freshmen honors went to Tim Nocton with a 10-6-1 record. Outstanding sophomore honors went to Kip Coats with a 10-6-2 record. Tim Frame, junior, was named most valuable wrestler with a record of 16-2. Frame also took top honors at the Jay County Invitational, the conference, and the sectional.

In closing Coach Emery warned that NHS grapplers "will be ready for action next year!"

Junior Tim Frame, who was the Knights most valuable wrestler this year, appears to be grinding his opponent's face into the mat at the Tri-Eastern Conference at Hagerstown. Frame won 16 matches and lost only two at the 138 pound class.

Dean Frame, the Knights only senior wrestler this year, is ready to begin the period in the 'up' position. Cancellations from the blizzard conditions hampered the Knights this season.

Tim Nocton, freshman, shows how to properly warm up by torturing himself in this unique position.

The badminton team placed first over Richmond for the fourth consecutive year. Joyce Hamm, senior, was leading singles player, losing only one game out of 28. Val Johnson was close behind with 24 wins. Lori Benner and Kim Gwin were the leading doubles players with 21 out of 28.

When asked if the team performed as well as expected, Coach Sally Ricketts replied, "Yes, except in state competition where we bombed out." She also stated Kathy Hurd and Myra Nichols were the most improved players.

Smashers 1st; Special Olympics Triumphs

"Let me win, but if I cannot win, let me be brave in my attempt," was the Special Olympic Team oath.

Last year was the first year for overall competition including many additional sports. It was also the first year for the team to have uniforms.

Mrs. Shari Petersime was the coach and sponsor of the team and was aided by Mark Coyle and Eric Baker as student coaches.

Outstanding athletes in some of the events were Rhoda Creech in bowling; Mike Ellis in skiing; Joannie Reynolds in run-dribble-shoot; Cynthia Baker in gymnastics; Reagan Lanter in swimming; and Richard Brawley and Darlene Walcott in track and field.

Ribbons and trophies were awarded to the students and were on display in March.

Part of the badminton team is shown here with their trophies. Joycana Joycanahamma (Joyce Hamm) was the number one singles player with only one loss. A combination team of Lori Benner and Kim Gwin placed first in doubles competition.

Energy Crunch Brings On

The energy crunch caused cancelled practices and meets to the gymnasts this year and lowered the season to just seven meets.

The beginning team slated a 4-3 record while the intermediate team had a record of 1-6 with five gymnasts and one manager lettering. They were Myra Nichols, Judi Low, Lori Benner, Teresa Street, Kelly Brooks, and Karen Turner, manager.

Commenting on individual performers, Coach Ruth Goddington said that "all gymnasts have an outstanding performance either in a meet or practice." "I would say though that Lori Benner, Myra Nichols, and Judi Low were the most consistent performers."

"Easy does it!" thinks Myra Nichols as she vaults over the horse, making it look too easy. The gymnast season was cut short this year when the school was forced to shut down immediately after school because of the energy crisis.

Watching another performer, the NHS gymnasts try to psyche themselves up for their own routine. Some of the girls, as well as Coach Coddington, appear to be quite nervous. Teresa Street seems to think praying will help!

Cinderwomen Do Well For Rookie Year

For the first time in history, Northeastern has a varsity girls' track team. The team was young and inexperienced but many of the girls did as well as could be expected in their rookie year.

Girls who performed well were Kelly Brooks in the high jump, long jump, and 220; Judi Low in hurdles and 100 yard dash; Liz Reed in the 440 and shot put; Mary Nocton in the 880; Patty Ferguson in the mile; and the 440 relay team consisting of Kelly Brooks, Judi Low, Jill Owens, and Lynette Loper.

Coach Barb Bader is looking forward to 1979 when she will have more depth and experience.

Girls' track is new to Northeastern this year. Here, a few of our early track stars express little doubt about their running skills and ability. Go get 'em girls.

Kelley Hurd, freshman, gracefully strides to straddle the hurdle. Brenda Baker, junior, puts the pressure on Kelley by keeping a close pace on her. May the best woman win!

Cindermen Have Winning Season; 14-5

With a seasonal record of 14-5 including invitational, conference, and regular meets, the varsity track boys were one of the two 1977-78 varsity teams to finish with a winning record.

"The nucleus of the team was freshmen and sophomores, so we should have a good team next year," stated Mr. Dick Warvel, coach.

Outstanding individual performers were Joe Ladd, establishing a two mile record of 10:10; Mike Cummins was conference high jumper; Don Thurston conference 440; and Kevin Lewis who scored the most points with 103.

Mike Seal, senior, books around the track with Don Thurston in hot pursuit of Mike for the 440 yard victory.

Kevin Lewis and Bob Stigleman think something is pretty humorous, but all Mike Seal is concerned about is another team victory. The team won 14 of their 19 meets, including a climax by winning the Hagerstown Invitational.

Fourth row, Tammy Hill, Sherri Berry, Londa Murphy, Jane Turner, Mary Toschlog, Tara Biga, Miss Pam Haler, coach.

"I think the team would have done better if the weather had been more conducive to track," stated Mr. Mike Sherrow, junior high boys' track coach.

Regular season standings were 3-1 for the seventh grade; 2-1-1 for the eighth grade; 2-0 combined; and second place in the Invitational.

"This track team will do very well in the future if they continue to improve at the rate they did this season," commented Mr. Sherrow.

"I was extremely proud of the girls' performance in our only meet," stated Mrs. Pam Haler, junior high girls' track coach.

This was the first year track at the junior high level was offered for girls. Although they lost their only meet there were several outstanding performances. Mindy Fulks was outstanding in the 50, 100, and 440 yard relays and the long jump; Rhonda Ozbun in the 880 run; Julie Collett in the high jump; Joy Brown and Darla Chaney in the 440 yard run.

Diamondmen Suffer With A Young Team

"We didn't perform as well as I'd hoped," stated Coach Bob Wright, B-team baseball coach. Regular season record was 0-6.

"Several individuals showed promise as future varsity baseball players. Jesse Burns, Mike Herron, and Greg Moore showed potential as pitchers and Alan Stamper, Tom Pearson, Rod York, hit the ball very well," commented the coach.

"If these players continue to work hard and give 100 percent all the time, I'm sure they can develop into a fine baseball team," explained Coach Wright.

Junior Mike Brobeck stretches forth from the bag in order to force the opponent out.

Sophomore Ronny McClain gets into "his" position as he awaits for the arrival of the ball.

"We are a very young team and the mistakes we made showed this very plainly," said Mr. Dave Lower, varsity baseball coach. Finishing the regular season with a 3-12 record, thirteen players received letter awards.

Ron McClain was the leading hitter with a .469 batting average. He had 23 hits. Eric Sittloh and Ed Berry had home runs. Mike Brobeck and Kenny Oler had 18 and 16 runs batted in respectively.

Steve Esarey, according to Coach Lower, had "several outstanding pitching performances." Kenny Oler also pitched well, but each time "our defense just didn't support him."

Future Looks Bright For NHS 'Swingers'

Junior Tony Valant led the golf team with a low average of 46. The greensmen finished up their regular season with a record of 2-11.

Kurt Laswell was labeled the most improved by Coach Rob Weaver. Lettermen included Juniors Tony Valant and Mike Mullady; Sophomores Jim Jackson, Jeff Norris, and Kurt Laswell. All lettermen will be returning for 1979.

"Northeastern's golf future should be somewhat brighter with such a young team competing this year; however a lot will depend on dedication," stated Coach Weaver.

Girl Bowlers For G.A.A. End An Era

Equal rights for the sexes has hit home for the girls' bowling program. Since segregated sports are no longer allowed "this is the end of an era for the Girls' Athletic Association as we have known it for the past ten years at Northeastern."

"We are moving on to a new dimension—whether it be good or bad," explained Mrs. Sally Ricketts, sponsor.

Team one consisted of Val Johnson, Tammy Brown, Debbie Koons, and Rhonda Herron. They placed third in the league. Team two consisted of Diane Blue, Kim Ketron, Sandy Hamm, and Pam Knoll. Team three consisting of Kathy Hurd, Joyce Hamm, Tammy Sharp, and Kim Nicholson, placed second in the league. Kathy Hurd also took top honors with a league high game of 204.

HONOR SOCIETY

"Membership is considered the highest honor the school can bestow on a student," stated Mrs. Olive Ranck, Honor Society sponsor.

To be a member of the National Honor Society the students are judged on scholastic eligibility, character, leadership and service.

The Honor Society was involved with a few activities such as selling sporting tickets, ushering for open house, and college visitations.

JR. HIGH LIBRARY

This year there were 42 students who belonged to the junior high Library Club.

The purpose of this club was to provide junior high students an opportunity to serve the school by working in the library. Their duties included running the circulation desk, filing material, and delivering overdue notices.

Knights People Jam; Damsels Add Excitement

KNIGHTS PEOPLE

Before the change in band directors, a new group was formed, entitled "Knights People," but after the change in directors the group "semi-disbanded."

Even though the group diminished they did perform in the annual Variety Show that was put on by the music department.

DAMSELS

The NHS Damsels had a fine year. They went to drill team contests. At Wapahani they placed fifth out of 10 competitive groups. Adding to their success they took first place at Eastern Hancock against 8 competitive groups.

Fourteen girls ranging from grades 9-12 made the squad. They performed at most football and basketball games.

68 Become Cadets; FFA Places First. CADET TEACHERS

There were 68 students who met the qualifications to become cadet teachers for the faculty.

A junior or full-time senior with good attendance, and a "C" average could qualify to become a cadet teacher.

FFA

"Developing leadership, citizenship, and cooperation are some of the purposes of FFA," stated Mr. Sims, sponsor.

The forestry and crop judging teams placed first in the county contests. FFA provided one-half of the money needed for the new event board placed in front of the school.

Shows Go On For Jr. High;

New Club Has 'Enthusiasm'

JR. HIGH DRAMA CLUB

The junior high Drama Club presented seven, one act plays, which were directed by the Drama classes. The plays were, "Oh, Baby," "Carriage Trade," "Shock of his Life," "Ghost of a Show," "If Girls asked Boys for Dates," and "He tried with his boots on."

A Christmas play was to be given, but was cancelled because of the great blizzard.

JR. HIGH SPEECH

"Speech Club has work sessions for preparing speeches and reading for speech meets," stated Mrs. Harrison, sponsor.

The members participated in two meets at Richmond and New Castle. Mrs. Harrison also commented, "Junior High Speech Club has shown a lot of enthusiasm. The club members will provide a good basis for the Senior High Speech Club."

Jr., Sr. High Choirs Are 'Looking Good'

JR. HIGH CHOIR

"The students were rewarded with 'good choral orientation experiences,'" commented Miss Mitchell, director.

The purpose of Junior High Choir was to involve the junior high students in the choral department.

CONCERT CHOIR

"We had many talented students in the choir this year," commented Miss Mitchell, choir director.

New robes were finally purchased this year after a long, hard money drive for the 45 members of the choir.

The choir performed at many activities this year. Some of which were a Christmas concert, spring concert, and topping the year off was the participation in the Variety Show.

Chess Team Changes Name;

Swing Choir Still 'Swinging'

CHESS CLUB

Changing the Chess Team into a Chess Club this year added another club to the school roster. The organization, boasting of more than 30 members, had difficulty in completing matches as the 45 minute homeroom period was too short. Mr. Bussell, sponsor, commented that in the future the club would probably reorganize due to the limited time factor.

SWING CHOIR

Four swinging couples comprised the 1977-78 Swing Choir. Adorned in their new blue corduroy pants and rust colored shirts the group performed at a Christmas concert at a local elementary school. Try-outs were held in September and only selected students were accepted.

Varsity Club, Freshman Choir Plan Future

VARSITY CLUB

Varsity Club was just one of the many new clubs added to NHS activities. Mr. Stewart, sponsor, stated, "We need more interest by our athletes and this club may promote some of the interest."

Being the first year for the club, it had a great number of members. Most of this year was spent on getting organized for the upcoming year.

This year membership consisted of 12 members. The main object to this club is to "orient students to the function of a concert choir and to stage presentations," explained Miss Mitchell, director.

FRESHMAN CHOIR

Jr. French, New Club; Sr. French Trips

JR. HIGH FRENCH CLUB

"This year the 35 members in Jr. High French Club made French Christmas cards and sang carols during Christmas time," commented Miss Rutkowski, sponsor.

French Club held meetings once every month.

SR. HIGH FRENCH CLUB

"Events that went on this year for the Sr. High French Club were a trip to a French restaurant and to the Indianapolis Museum of Art," stated Miss Rutkowski, sponsor.

While Scientists Explore; Railroaders Swap

SCIENCE CLUB

There were 18 members that were a part of the Science Club this year.

"The main purpose of this club was to promote science," stated Mr. Short, sponsor, when asked about the club.

As for the activities of the club, there were not many because of the blizzard and energy crisis that hit NHS this year.

RAILROAD CLUB

"This year the Railroad Club had guest speakers, films and swap sessions," commented Mr. Gary Nordmann, sponsor and principal.

The purpose of this club was to enjoy model railroads as well as real railroads. This year there was a total of 28 members in this newly organized club.

RAILROAD CLUB, front row, from left, Gary Nunn, Jerry Urich, secretary; Jeff Norris, president; Bruce Hinshaw, Rusty Urich, vice president. Papers Are Entered In Ball State Contest

"The lack of activity period and also not having a room during homeroom hurt us this year. Thanks to the cooperation of teachers and administration we've managed," stated Mr.

Gary Cole, newspaper advisor.

There were a few changes in the newspaper this year from years past. The paper was printed by the Graphic Press in Richmond with about 500 copies printed for every addition. Also, our newspaper was entered in a high school newspaper competition at Ball State University.

Band Shows Improvement With Pulley

"They made a tremendous improvement since November," stated Mr. Pulley, new high school band director.

The Sr. High Band consisted of about 70 members. They participated in a band contest and the Wayne Co. Band Festival.

Even though the band had a big change in the middle of the year with a new director coming on, the annual Variety Show was still a big success.

One of the main changes in the band program was the different marching program that was set up for the summer.

'Galaxy Of Fashion', Theme For Style Show

"A Galaxy of Fashion" was the theme for this year's style show, with 150 students modeling garments made in seventh grade through senior home economic classes.

Over 300 came to the show. Entertainment was provided by Steve Cummins and Kim Nicholson singing solos and Ann Ranck performing a piano selection.

Drama Presents 'Cheaper By the Dozen'

The play, "Cheaper By the Dozen," was very well received by the audience," commented Mrs. Harrison, Drama Club sponsor.

The cast consisted of 16 students with three students working on sets. The play was presented April 28, originally scheduled for February, but was postponed because of the blizzard and energy crisis.

Those Were The Days . . .

Well, once again the year has come to an end and another yearbook has been completed. It has been a hard and treacherous year because of the blizzard of '77 and the coal crunch but the highlights of the school year have been captured with pictures and words.

Molded by Mr. C.

At the beginning, 12 unexperienced journalists entered Room 6 and were molded together by our great advisor, Mr. Cole. I think he had his doubts about us at the beginning but we proved him wrong. I must say that without the help, supervision, and guidance of him this yearbook would have never happened, and for this I would like to thank him.

'78 LANCE best ever

As for the rest of the staff, there would not be a yearbook. These people put a lot of hard work, time, and dedication into making the '78 LANCE the best ever. Without the photographers, editors, and their staff helpers, those special moments of those special days would have surpassed us.

Thank you's

I wish I had the room to thank each of the staff members separately, but since I am cramped for room I will just have to thank them as a group. Thank you very much for all the hard work and time.

There were some people who did some work for the book that weren't a part of the staff that I would like to thank. Those people are Mary Tice, Kenny Jenkins, Jeff Wise, and Glen Fodale for either their art work or lettering. To Rhonna Wilburn goes a special thanks for the poem.
